

DEDICATION

NEW PHYSICS BUILDING

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI

COLUMBIA

APRIL 22, 1967

PROGRAM

I

9:00 A.M. - 5:00 P.M.

OPEN HOUSE

II

10:00 A.M.

DEDICATION SERVICE - Lecture Room 3, New Physics

Chairman - L. V. Holroyd, Chairman of the Department

Invocation - Thomas R. ShROUT, Dean, Missouri School of Religion

Recognition of the Occassion

John Schwada - Chancellor, Columbia Campus

W. Francis English - Dean, College of Arts and Science

Presentation of the Building

Architects - Neville, Sharp and Simon

Acceptance by the University

Robert Neill, President of the Board of Curators

Recognition of Distinguished Guests

Address: "The Relevance of Physics"

George Hoagland Vineyard

Associate Director, Brookhaven National Laboratory

III

12:30 P. M.

Luncheon

Small Ballroom, Memorial Union

Speaker: Dale Raymond Corson,
Provost, Cornell University

“The Importance of Being Non-Professional”

Presentation of Portrait of Oscar Milton Stewart,
Professor of Physics, 1901 - 1940
Emeritus Professor of Physics, 1940 - 1944

by Elmer Ellis, Professor of History and President Emeritus, University of Missouri

Presentation of Portrait of Herbert Meredith Reese,
Professor of Physics, 1904 - 1945
Emeritus Professor of Physics 1945 - 1954

by Henry E. Bent, Professor of Chemistry and Dean Emeritus, Graduate School, University of Missouri

Architects - Neville, Sharp & Simon, Inc.

General Contractors - J.E. Hathman, Incorporated and McCarthy Bros. Construction Company,
(A Joint Venture)

Mechanical Contractors - J. Louis Crum Corporation

Electrical Contractors - Howerton Electric Company, Inc.

Mechanical Engineer - W.L. Cassell

Funding:

State Appropriations	$1,500,000
National Science Foundation	587,300
Office of Education Title I	411,995

Floor Space: Gross square feet - 82,650

Date of Notice to Proceed - October 22, 1964