About Cornell Hall

- Located on MU's new South Quadangle, the new home of the College of Business contains 150,000 square feet of floor space dispersed over six floors.
- The new building consists of 16 technology-rich classrooms, two computer-equipped classrooms, a student computer lab, a 125-seat lecture hall, a 500-seat auditorium, informal student gathering space, and offices for the college's faculty, staff, PhD students, academic units, and research and service agencies.
- Cornell Hall features both wired and wireless network technologies; all classrooms have ceiling-hung projectors, a dedicated computer, a DVD/VCR player, and document camera.
- Numerous data ports as well as free e-mail kiosks are available in student lounge areas in Cornell Hall.
- A 17 x 12' video screen in the building's Jack and Mary Jack Atrium allows the college's students to monitor financial reports and news bulletins throughout the day.
